Christmas & Community

Christmas - that wonderful time for donning special clothes and performing to full houses of cheerful patrons. Yes, you can't beat Midnight Mass!

Look to that first story of Christmas where Mary and Joseph arrived in bustling Bethlehem expecting their first child immanently, and no-one noticed. Pushed into a back room to give birth with no mention of her mother helping her with the housework, or her in-laws or neighbours popping around with a casserole, although I suppose we could assume the shepherds brought a DIY one. (If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb!) There's no place more lonely than on your own in a crowd, there's no sadder place to be than on your own when everyone else is together enjoying themselves.

Don't make the mistake of assuming everyone else is happy at Christmas, for many are not. There are at least 48 families that I know of that are facing their first Christmas without a loved one, and many, many more who still find it hard. Don't leave them alone in the back room like Mary and Joseph, but invite them into yours or surprise them with a visit, just like the shepherds did for M & J.

Christmas is a great time for community, bringing people together and supporting one another - of having a excuse to call round, phone or talk to a neighbour or friend - because we do it in honour of the season, in honour of the babe in the manger who taught us to love one another. If you feel shy asking people in to your home, or its not your thing, then there are lots of special things on. Why not see if they will come with you to a Carol Service (There are lots to choose from) or witness the Vicar make a fool of himself in the Panto in the Church Hall - all for a good cause. Perhaps you might want to put the heart back into Christmas by attending a Service on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day. Even just a walk along our village High Street on Boxing Day or New Years Day mornings helps bring so many together to exchange a friendly word.

2,000 years ago many missed the wonder of the birth of Jesus because they were too busy and kept to themselves. This Christmas, make time for others and join with the angels and shepherds as we celebrate the wonder of God's love around us.

Merry Christmas to all,

Dame Trott (aka Paul)

Angrove Singers Christmas Concert

Saturday 3rd December in the Great Ayton Methodist Church at 7.30pm. Carols sung by the choir along with congregational carols and seasonal readings. Mince pies and seasonal punch or tea will be served after the concert. Tickets cost £6 for Adults and £3 for Children and Students.

Wedding Fayres

Seeing how Church weddings are on the decline nationally and locally, the Vicar has been out and about at five wedding fayres locally to promote Church weddings in general - and our Churches as good venues.

He was joined at Stokesley Town Hall and Whinstone View by the clergy from Stokesley Church, who are also keen to see their Church used more.

Young people today often don't know their legal right to be married in a Church - and that a Church wedding is usually a lot cheaper than a civic one at the Reception venue.

From just 8 this year between Ayton & Newton, we are now up to 18 between them in 2012. It pays to advertise!

Captain Cook Service

At the end of October our village welcomed Civic Heads into All Saints Church to celebrate the life of James Cook, perhaps Great Ayton most famous son.

The service followed a parade of sail on the river Leven as children designed, built and raced their boats.

A wreath was then laid on the statue of James Cook by the Chairman of Hambleton District Council.

We are rightly proud of Captain Cook's achievements, and grateful that he still brings so many visitors into our village. Many thanks to Councillor Gary Readman and Great Ayton Parish Council who organise the day so well.

Love in a Box

This year's Love in a Box Appeal was one of our most successful, thanks to many people getting involved.

As well as Marwood, Roseberry, Stokesley Secondary and Ingleby Greenhow schools being involved once again, we also welcomed Kirkby and Great Broughton School who are now more linked in with Marwood School as we share the same headteacher.

St Margaret's RC Church also joined in once again, making the total of boxes on the day 269 - up on previous years, as was the attendance. As often happens, boxes still came in after the date and were taken for packing to Prestons of Potto.

We were delighted to welcome to our Service, Roy Wheeler, the local organiser, together with his wife Cath. Roy had been very poorly last Christmas and has needed a heart by pass, and Cath has fought a brave struggle with cancer, but both were present and looking well. Roy brought along the big van for us to fill at the end of our service.

Our thanks to all who participated in any way, and especially to Roy and Cath Wheeler who are inspirational in their work and concern for Children in Distress. We hope that the boxes bring great pleasure this Christmas to the children of Romania.

Yorkshire Cancer Lunch

On Wednesday 16th November the Parochial Hall was packed for the much awaited Annual Yorkshire Cancer Lunch. This was the 25th lunch in a row, and each year it gets better and better.

A chance to look around the various stalls, then a sit down and chat to friends from far and wide. The lunch of meat and many salads, was followed by the traditional vast array of sweets and puddings - what a good job its not a Heart Foundation Lunch!

Following the meal we were given a very informative talk by Dr Josie Meade, a Research Scientist working at Leeds University on how to get naturally occurring killer cells to attack cancer cells in the body. It is incredible each year to hear of the different progress being made in cancer treatment, but there is still so much to do.

At the end of the address, Margaret Stevens presented the very large cheque for £27,500 - and yes it was incredibly up on last year.

A huge Thank You to the committee who work so hard throughout the year and to all their faithful supporters who make each event such a success. The lunch raised a marvellous £3,400 - a good start to next year's cheque!

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

The Christingle service will have been and gone by the time you read this, but I'm sure it will have lived up to its usual standard and been attended by many youngsters and their families.

The Quiz was a sell-out with nearly 80 people attending. It was an enjoyable evening with the new quiz master, Jim Lawton, and it raised £503.

On Friday, 23rd December, our committee will be gathering to sing carols near the shops between 10.30-11.30 a.m. If anyone would like to come and join us, then please do so - we will be delighted to see you. Men's voices would be excellent!

We all wish everybody a Happy Christmas and a healthy New Year.

Jancie Brown (723873)

The Memory Tree

The Memory Tree will appear in Christ Church in the first week of December. It is a way of remembering loved ones who have died, but are still in our hearts, especially at this time of year.

Just come into Church and write a message or simply their name on one of the cards and hang it on the tree.

Any donations made will be sent to support Herriott Hospice Homecare who do so much to support the terminally ill in our area.

Newton News

Following the redecoration of the balcony area - which was made necessary by the increase in weddings for 2012 - we set about giving our Church a thorough 'Spring' Clean. John and Alan came from the village suitably equipped with a pair of ladders and a good head for heights, so no spider was safe!

We were also delighted to welcome Rob and Helen, one of our wedding couples, who turned out both Friday evening and Saturday morning, when the spit and polish brigade turned up to ensure the whole church was gleaming. Carpets were swept and anything hard was polished, including the brass chandeliers.

Later in the week John returned to trim the Yew trees along the path. Our thanks to all who keep our Church and grounds so tidy and welcoming, and especially to the Willis family of Snow Hall Farm who cut the Church grass, and the Nilssohn family from Oatways who kindly cut the grass in the Memorial Garden.

Turn to the Light - A Message from the Flowers

Even the Church flowers have sense. A week after the harvest flowers had been put in Church we noticed that they had turned to face the light coming from the window. That is the meaning of Repentance - a turning away from evil and a turning to the light. If the flowers can get it right, so should we.

Remembrance Remembered

Remembrance was well observed this year in our village. On Friday 11th November at 11am, Marwood School pupils, parents and many villagers gathered outside Church to keep a two minute silence and make a chain for peace around the village war memorial.

This years Remembrance Sunday saw the biggest number present I can remember since 1993, and folk here before me can vouch for before that.

Guisborough Road was lined many deep on both sides as the procession made its way from the Parochial Hall. No problems now with traffic being stopped, as happened several years ago, as the Police present were extremely helpful.

As each of the 45 names from World War 1 and the 19 from World War 2 were read out, a Scout came forward to lay a single poppy on the memorial, showing us visibly how many young men from our village lost their lives.

Remembrance can have its omissions, for I couldn't help but think of Sergeant Stephen Smith from our village whose funeral took place in Christ Church earlier this year. Stephen has served for nineteen years in some of the most troubled areas of the world, and was a Royal Military Policeman. He had been present at our act of remembrance on many previous occasions and died from injuries sustained after being hit by a van whilst out jogging in this country in July of this year. Although he didn't die in war, he served his country with great distinction. He is rightly remembered with a Memorial bench in Great Ayton cemetery.

Christ Church needed elastic walls for the service to get everyone in, and we even had Scouts sitting on the Altar step and Brownies sat by the pulpit. The Service brought young and old together in an act of Remembrance and of Dedication for Peace, as we seek to strengthen the bonds of community that help us through times of adversity.

Thank you to all who ensure that today, we still do remember.

A Letter from an Old Soldier

Dear Vicar

“Thank You.” Two simple words meaning so much and cost nothing. May I be among the first to say those words and congratulate the way Remembrance Sunday 2011 was organised. The children sitting on the floor was an inspiration to us all and the positioning of the wheelchair brigade placed in such a way that we could hear and see all without difficulty. The pageantry of entering and leaving the Church, which brought a splash of colour, and your recordings of war time songs and speeches which brought back memories to us war time warriors.

We must also thank those young children who boldly stood in front of a Church full of people, so their voice could be heard taking the readings. We must also give thanks to the choir for their rendering of the anthem, which was wonderful. I also considered myself very privileged and indeed honoured when asked to read the opening words of The Exhortation (They shall grow not old ...)

The records show that in 1929 there was an excellent turnout on Remembrance Sunday believed to be one of the best since World War I, but I am sure that this year's takes priority over previous ones. The Remembrance Sundays in Great Ayton seem to get stronger every year.

A point of interest. The names of those you read out from the War Memorial from the Second World War - I knew almost everyone of those boys having been brought up in the village and going to school with them.

Well done Vicar!

Bill Kirby

(Ex Pat old Aytonian)

Mission Giving 2011

As part of our Christian discipleship, both Christ Church and St Oswald's Church donate part of their income to Missions in addition to that raised by collections as special services like Harvest, Christmas, Weddings, Funerals, Baptisms, Remembrance, Christingles and all the Sunday Alternatives.

Both PCC's have met and have agreed to donate the following from Church Funds to support Mission Home & Overseas.

Christ Church, Great Ayton -

£2,000 to the Stokesley School Christian Youth Worker Project.

£400 each for USPG, CMS, Church Army, Yatton House, The Children's Society and The Bible Society

£100 to the Yorkshire Historic Churches Trust.

St Oswald's Church, Newton under Roseberry-

£100 each to USPG, CMS, Church Army, Children's Society and the Bishop of Whitby's South African Appeal.

So the next time you hear someone say "The Church is always asking for money", you can reply, "Yes, and they give lots of it away too."

Contemplative Prayer

This was something new for me when I attended the introductory day at Christ Church in October. Elizabeth from Contemplative Outreach UK explained that "Contemplative prayer is a process of interior transformation, a conversation initiated by God and leading, if we consent, to Divine union". This was a difficult concept to grasp I thought, but the practical sessions helped. They showed that in order for God to initiate a conversation with us, we have to be listening – something I must admit I find a challenge! Contemplative prayer is a way to help us do that by withdrawing from everyday thoughts, being quiet and receiving the gift of God's presence.

The day was very interesting and there are further sessions planned. These are to be held on Saturday 26th November and 3rd December in St Margaret's Catholic Church from 10am to 12 noon.

Christmas Appeal 2011

For our Christmas Appeal at Christ Church this year we are supporting Bishop Martin's False Bay Appeal.

The Diocese of York is linked up with three South African Dioceses, and the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, which we are in, is linked with the Diocese of False Bay. Earlier this year Bishop Martin and a group of others from our Archdeaconry went out to see the work of the Church there first hand.

HIV/ AIDS is rife in South Africa and affects every community. The South African Church have started their Fikelela Project to support those affected.

This Christmas our donations will go to support two particular projects.

The St Francis Mandela Park Project supports the many children who have been orphaned by AIDS. They want to start a soup kitchen for their day centre and to get another large portacabin to allow for skills training.

At the Fikelela Children's project, St Francis Church, Khayelitsha

The Overstrand Care Centre is in a very poor rural area and is a hospice that cares for people with HIV/ AIDS, TB and Cancer. It has 18 beds and 24 staff, who also work within the community. The hospice gives respite as well as terminal care in an area where home facilities are minimal.

We hope through our Christmas Gifts at all our Carol Services at Christ Church and All Saints and the Crib Service that we will be able to help make a difference for the good.

Please be generous and Gift Aid your donation wherever possible.

Before coming to our parish some two years ago, Paul Bradley, one of our choristers, had served as a Reader for more than 50 years in Anglican Dioceses abroad and here in England, his last Diocese being Leicester. He was Admitted and Licensed at Lichfield in 1957, served concurrently in Birmingham and has since served in dioceses overseas in Lagos (Nigeria), Wellington (New Zealand) and Matabeleland (Zimbabwe).

The York Diocesan Readers held their Annual Service in York Minster on Saturday, 19th November and Paul received his Certificate of Reader Emeritus. He was supported by members of his family and friends.

Mothers Union News

We welcomed our Speaker, Mrs Nona Jenkins, to our meeting in November and also Mrs Jennifer Local, our Deanery President. We then held a minute's silence in memory of two of our very loyal and faithful members who had passed away in October, Mrs Laura Lamb, our Branch Leader, and Mrs Bunty Lester. They will be very sadly missed by us all. Mrs Margaret Lewis then led us in prayers followed by a hymn.

Mrs Nona Jenkins brought a splendid array of "Christmas Embroidery" and entertained us with her stories about the materials, beautiful threads etc. purchased both here and abroad, particularly in America. She had a great assortment of Christmas tree decorations, lovely dolls, beautiful tablecloths, napkins, all embroidered, and framed pictures.

Many of our members and friends enjoyed the Theatre trip to see "The King and I" and it was a really good night out together.

During December we shall be collecting the usual toiletries, hats, scarves, gloves, sweets etc. for the Mission to Seafarers, and toiletries, baby, children's and ladies clothing, sweets etc. for the Women's Refuge. Please ring Kath Stewart, (724892) or Lynda Walker, (722513) for donations to be collected.

Our subscriptions for 2012 will be increased to £18. We would be grateful if these could be given to either Mrs Kath Stewart or Mrs Angela Jaques, (722979) as soon as possible, but no later than the 4th January, when we have our social afternoon. We have been advised that these subscriptions must be sent to Mary Sumner House by the end of January 2012. Many thanks for your co-operation.

Stokesley School Youthworkers

As the second half of the Christmas term gets underway, the team is pleased by the work we have been able to do in School. Matty was able to spend a day with the Year 7 classes as part of a day looking at Role Models. Matty presented a lesson to groups on Jesus as our role model in life, why Christians follow Him and His significance in our world.

Neil has been working informally with a group of sixth form students who have now, at their request asked to meet up each week to discuss issues facing their lives but also allowing Neil to bring a faith perspective. This is particularly exciting as these students are not churchgoers and it was their own idea to do this.

Our Rock solid lunch group is doing very well, each week new students are coming along and joining in and return each week. Alongside fun activities, we have been looking at the grace and mercy of God and our responsibilities to live lives which reflect Christ's example to us. We followed this theme at our SI monthly event in the youth centre.

We are excitedly planning for next March when we have some students coming across from the USA in our now annual partnership with them. We hope to extend the impact of their work by running a night away in Whitby with a Friday evening and Saturday daytime full of events which are fun but also present and develop faith to our different contacts who we will invite along.

With Christmas approaching, we will have input into different year groups bringing the excitement but also significance of Christmas to them.

Thanks for your prayers and continued support.

Neil and the team!

Christmas Jokes

It was Christmas Eve in at the meat counter and a woman was anxiously picking over the last few remaining turkeys in the hope of finding a large one.

In desperation she called over a shop assistant and said, 'Excuse me. Do these turkeys get any bigger?'

'No, madam, 'he replied, 'they're all dead.'

Lee, A seven-year-old boy, was asked to say thanks for the Christmas dinner. The family members bowed their heads in expectation. Lee began his prayer, thanking God for his Mommy, Daddy, brothers, sister, Grandma, and all his aunts and uncles. Then he began to thank God for the food.

He gave thanks for the turkey, the stuffing, the Christmas pudding, even the cranberry sauce. Then lee paused, and everyone waited ... and waited. After a long silence, the young fellow looked up at his mother and asked, "If I thank God for the Brussels sprouts, won't he know that I'm lying?"
