Looking at the Big Picture

Matthew is now 2½ and addicted to jigsaws. He'll happily sit for ages making and remaking them and, whilst he could do them on his own, "Matthew need Daddy, help me please", and a tug of his little hand, finds me sitting alongside to encourage him.

As I try to forget about the cares that I've brought home from the office and try to concentrate on the brightly coloured pieces of cardboard, he will helpfully point to the box and add, "No Daddy, look at big picture".

How often do we sit there trying to piece the fragments together when it comes to church life – responding to falling attendance, mending the leaking gutters, and feeling that there must be more to this than just keeping the show on the road? We shuffle the pieces around but sometimes just yearn for the encouragement that we are not doing this on our own.

In the coming months our bishops, archdeacons and others will be helping us refocus on the big picture – put simply, our churches making and nurturing disciples of all ages – and sharing with us the vision, agreed by Diocesan Synod last year, of a diocesan family that is growing in Christ-likeness, commitment, partnership, and influence, as well as numerically.

"Matthew help Daddy", is his other frequent request. As he tries to emulate what I do, so he grows in confidence to be able to do more himself. In the future the roles may well be reversed and I will come to rely on his help, but in the meantime I am growing more each day in my ability to share, love and encourage.

There are certainly occasions when I want some "me time", but I find great fulfilment in doing things together and the reciprocated feeling is obvious from his appreciative laughter.

Doing it together is the other key part of the vision that was agreed by Synod – we called it Mutual Resourcing – developing relationships in which we all grow as we share our gifts and abilities.

Sharing of ourselves is not easy – in church life we too can sometimes feel that we need "us time", and that it is all give and no take ... and you only have to watch toddlers squabbling over the same doll or car that each want to play with to recognise the tensions that surround the use of scarce resources. But just as parents teach their children to share, so we have the example of our Heavenly Father, whose generosity knows no bounds and who is always alongside, as an encouragement to his beloved children.

then, as if as a reminder that our work is never complete, he mixes up the pieces, sticks out his little tongue in deep concentration, and he and his father turn to the big picture again.

Canon Peter Warry

Diocesan Secretary

When the last piece of the jigsaw is in place, Matthew sits back and gives a little cheer ... “Yay, big clap Daddy” ... and

Autumn Clean at St Oswald's

We are planning our annual Autumn clean of our Church on Friday 26th and Saturday 27th October. On the Friday evening from 6pm we will dust down all the walls, ledges and any cobwebs - so feather dusters, Henry Hoovers and ladders welcome. On Saturday from 9.30am we Hoover, clean and polish all the surfaces to keep our Church ready to welcome people for worship. Have you a free hour? Then come along.

Harvest at St Oswald's Church

Newton under Roseberry

Our Harvest Service and Supper will take place on Friday 5th October at 7.30pm, when we welcome Revd John Ford, Rector of Yarm and Rural Dean of Stokesley as our Preacher.

The service will be followed by a Harvest Faith Supper, so please bring along something edible or drinkable to share.

Our collection this year will be to support RABI - Royal Agrcultural Benevolent Institute - that supports farmers at home going through difficulties.

HARVEST 2012

Harvest at Christ Church on Sunday 14th October, we are trying something new - instead of asking for money to pass on to a charity, we are going to give money out to those attending for them to pass on. All we ask people to do is to give it added value by their efforts.

So here is what happens.

1. Come to one of our Services on Harvest Sunday 14th October.

We have 8am Holy Communion; 9.15am Parish Communion: I am Come & Praise Family Service and 4pm Church Parade for Uniformed Organisations & Friends. We invite you to bring with you one item of tinned or dried goods from the list below that will be passed on to Middlesbrough Food Bank for emergency Relief for poor in our own area.

- Milk (UHT or powdered)
- Sugar (500g)
- Fruit Juice (carton)
- Soup
- Pasta Sauces
- Sponge Pudding (Tinned)
- Tomatoes (Tinned)
- Cereals
- Rice Pudding (Tinned)
- Tea Bags/inst coffee
- Instant Mash Potato
- Rice/Pasta
- Tinned Meat/Fish
- Tinned Fruit
- Jam
- Biscuits or snack bars

A BLESSING

HARVEST 2012

2. Come forward and receive a £10 note (a different amount for groups like Scouts and Guides - sorry folk!) You then are charged to use it to make a positive difference for someone else in need by adding to it with your efforts.

Here are some suggestions

- Put £10 of petrol in your car and give a ride out into the country for some folk who never get out the village
- Use it to bake cakes/ pies etc and give these away to where they may be appreciated.
- Use it to buy a gift for someone, normally unrecognised, who does a lot for others or our community
- Get together with someone else and have a coffee morning/ cheese & Wine/ Pudding Party etc and invite friends around
- Take someone out, who doesn't normally get out, for a coffee and scone in the village – or take them to the cinema if you prefer
- Bake a load of cakes and take them along to the local football match, or down the village to the kids on the green, or to pensioners meeting in Hollygarth etc, and say "These are for you – we are sharing a blessing"
- If you have a link in a needy area of Teesside, by all means do it for them. Perhaps raise some funds for a Guide or Scout Troop in Middlesbrough that may not be as well off.

The possibilities are as big as your imagination.

Some may wish to do a traditional fund raiser, like a Coffee Morning or washing cars etc.

If you have opt to run a fund raiser, then any money returned will be sent to the Barnabas Fund to support Christians in Syria who are having a very hard time at present.

Please try and share your blessing before 9th December.

Any stories afterwards welcome, but not compulsory!

HARVEST 2012

Mothers' Union News

At our September meeting we were pleased to welcome members of the local Children's Society Committee. We enjoyed an interesting talk about Society's work with vulnerable and disadvantaged young people by Jonathan Turner, the Area Fund-raising Manager.

On the same day, several of our members attended a deanery Quiet Evening at Ingleby Barwick, led by Rev Clay Rowntree.

On 7th September we enjoyed a deanery Quiz Evening at Yarm, when £329 was raised for the MU Relief Fund.

Our next meeting will be held at 2pm on Wednesday 3rd October in the Coffee Lounge. Rev Andrew Howard will speak about his work as Chaplain at Teesside University.

We would welcome anyone who is interested in finding out more about the Mother's Union or who would like to attend our meeting, as a visitor. Please just turn up on the day.....or talk to one of our committee members – Elaine Brown, Lynda Walker, Angela Jaques, Kath Hazell, Lesley Miller and Margaret Lewis.

Love in a Box

Advance warning that the Love in a Box Service will be on Sunday 18th November at 4pm - so start shopping now!

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

During September, Jonathan Turner came to speak to the Mothers' Union and several of our committee were able to attend on that afternoon. It was good to meet our new fundraising Regional Manager and we hope that he will be able to visit us when we hold other functions. On this occasion the two blankets which our supporters had knitted and we had sewn together, were passed on to the MU to be donated to the Women's Refuge in Middlesbrough.

On Saturday, 6th October, we are holding our annual "Cards for Christmas" coffee morning in the Methodist Church Hall from 10 - 12, with various other charities selling their cards and wares. Entrance is £1.50, which includes coffee and biscuits.

To give you advance warning, we are holding a Quiz in the Royal Oak on Sunday, 11th November, - further details in November's Spire.

Stokesley School Youthworkers' Report

The new year has started well, we have got stuck in with our work, restarting our lesson input, our lunch clubs and supporting the school wherever there is a need. Thanks to last terms investment in the upcoming year 7s we have already had new members at our first Rock Solid lunch club and are now starting a new group for the year 10/11s who have graduated into those year groups.

A new year always brings changes. We are sad to inform you that Jaime Smyth has now returned to the USA. She sends her love and we are grateful to God for the amazing contribution she made to the school and to many local youth groups and churches whilst she was with us. She is assured of our continued prayers and love as she looks to find paid employment with her musical gifts.

The good news for us is that Kayla Moore (pictured) has joined the team. She is from Georgia in the USA and as she starts her work, we are excited to see the contribution she will make. Pray for her as she adapts to a different culture and brings her own experiences to our young people.

The Café Church in Costa Coffee will continue, although the planned re-launch has been moved from 11th September to 2nd October. Same place, same time. This is to allow for the transition for us from Jaime's departure to Kayla's arrival and to ensure we have time to advertise well within the school and community.

New Chairman of Oversight Group

At the last meeting of the Oversight Group, Nick Land handed over the chairmanship after 10 years in post. We thank Nick for all his work.

The new chairman is Stuart Johnson who attends Great Ayton Methodist church and lives in Great Broughton. He has two children at Stokesley and a third in primary school. We wish Stuart well in the role.

The Vicar Painter Revealed

Mention last month of the 70 oil paintings donated by the Rev. Edward Mowforth in 1970, to be sold towards the cost of redecorating Christ Church, aroused considerable interest.

Not only have we discovered that there are a number of the paintings hanging in homes around the village, but we have also been able to build up a picture of Mr Mowforth and his artistic background.

He was born in Hull in 1897 and was vicar of Bilsdale for ten years, from 1943-1953. Mrs Freda Phalp, of Airyholme Farm, whose family lived in Bilsdale during that period, recalls him as "a quiet, lovely man," a former French teacher, who rode a motor-bike. A self portrait of himself, together with paintings of his two predecessors, still hangs in the vestry of St. Hilda's, Chop Gate, and also in the church is a painting Mr Mowforth executed of a group of the choir – including a youthful Mrs Phalp.

In 1953 he was appointed vicar of Lastingham, where he wrote a pamphlet outlining the history of the ancient monastery, with its famous crypt, and the church which succeeded it. Needless to say, the leaflet – of which Jean Crombie had a copy – was chiefly illustrated by Mr Mowforth !

In 1956 he became vicar of Rosedale. He retired to Scalby, near Scarborough, but later moved to Bognor Regis, where he died in 1977. He was buried in Chop Gate churchyard. His wife, who had taught at Chop Gate school while they were in Bilsdale, moved to Reading. They had no children.

Mr Mowforth appears to have been a prolific artist. For many years he was a member of the Fylingdale Group of Artists, resigning only in 1976, a year before his death. His work, oils on board, was also exhibited by Scarborough Arts Society.

His paintings of country life – including many North Yorkshire landscapes - have several times appeared at auctions, the latest , Top of Spaunton Bank Looking North, in April this year where it sold for £40 at Scarborough. One even appeared on e-bay. Another, Easterly Gale, sold for £60 in 2007.

Why did he donate so many paintings to our church? Possibly because he is understood to have been very friendly with our former vicar, Ted Appleyard.

Many thanks to all those who helped with the detective work, including Freda Phalp, Jean Crombie, the Huddlestons (both sets!), and Mary de Wardt, all of whom possess paintings by Mr Mowforth, and the Atkinson family of Chop Gate.

Talking Point

If I peeped over the Church wall when my neighbour was sunbathing topless in her garden - hypothetically, of course - and took a sneaky picture for Spire, chances are I would rightly be arrested and charged as a Peeping Tom. How come someone can go into the middle of a 600 acre estate with a telephoto lens and take revealing pictures which are then published? What right to privacy do we have, and do Royals have any rights too?

More to the point, why are protection officers allowing Royals to get into situations where they are compromised. Confiscating cameras at private parties and realising people hide in trees could be a start.

A Dog's Purpose? (from a 6-year-old).

Being a veterinarian, I had been called to examine a ten-year-old Irish Wolfhound named Belker. The dog's owners, Ron, his wife Lisa, and their little boy Shane, were all very attached to Belker, and they were hoping for a miracle.

I examined Belker and found he was dying of cancer. I told the family we couldn't do anything for Belker, and offered to perform the euthanasia procedure for the old dog in their home.

As we made arrangements, Ron and Lisa told me they thought it would be good for six-year-old Shane to observe the procedure. They felt as though Shane might learn something from the experience.

The next day, I felt the familiar catch in my throat as Belker's family surrounded him. Shane seemed so calm, petting the old dog for the last time, that I wondered if he understood what was going on. Within a few minutes, Belker slipped peacefully away.

The little boy seemed to accept Belker's transition without any difficulty or confusion. We sat together for a while after Belker's passing, wondering aloud about the sad fact that animal lives are shorter than human lives. Shane, who had been listening quietly, piped up, "I know why."

Startled, we all turned to him. What came out of his mouth next stunned me. I'd never heard a more comforting explanation. It has changed the way I try and live.

He said, "People are born so that they can learn how to live a good life -- like loving everybody all the time and being nice, right?" The Six-year-old continued, "Well, dogs already know how to do that, so they don't have to stay as long."
