We Will Remember Them

On Remembrance Sunday we will gather again to remember all those young men from our village who gave their lives in the Two World Wars to preserve our freedom and our way of life and to help liberate all in those countries that had been occupied.

Remembrance isn't just about looking back to what has happened in the past, its also about committing ourselves to the present and the future to ensure we don't go down the road of war again by valuing what they fought for.

We have had peace in Europe for so long now we may be tempted to take it for granted, as indeed we may also take our society and its values for granted, so let us pause to remember some things to be thankful for.

We live in a society where everyone is equal before the law regardless of sex and race. It wasn't always so, and the suffragettes fought some tough battles to get the vote for women in 1918. In France it came in 1944, Switzerland in 1971 and in some parts of the world it still hasn't happened.

We have a society where people have the freedom of religious belief, where adherents of other faiths are free to erect their holy buildings and practice their faith, and they are met with considerably more tolerance and understanding here than Christians find in many other parts of the world.

Our society has grown in tolerance, with people of different sexual orientations now fully accepted into society, and with marriage between gays now being allowed in Law.

We have a country, that despite our grumbles, does have a good health service freely available to all in need, and a benefit system more generous than most.

We have education of a high standard open to all children, where the special needs of the disabled and disadvantaged are given special attention and are integrated within society and our schools. It doesn't happen everywhere.

We have the freedom to ask questions, and where respect has to be earned and not slavishly given. We can laugh at ourselves and the British sense of humour is something to be prized.

We are a generous nation, maybe because of our Christian heritage, and we often lead the way in aid and charitable works. Even in our own village we see plenty of evidence of this.

Through our democracy we have a say in how our country is governed, and if we don't agree with what is done, we the people can hold the Government to account.

We have the most respected Monarch in the whole world as our Head of State that even the Chinese President wants to be seen beside our Queen.

We are a people who have given the world so many good things too numerous to mention.

All this can only be enjoyed today because in our past when danger threatened many young men and women from our communities went to fight for what they believed in.

On Remembrance Sunday let us remind ourselves of the heritage we enjoy because of their sacrifice and ensure we do all we can to preserve it for future generations.

Our village Act of Remembrance begins at 10.45am at the War Memorial. Do join us.

Great Ayton Beavers need your help

The Beaver colony in Great Ayton, which meets on a Friday evening, has an exciting program for the next few months, and we feel we need an extra leader to help us make it the best experience for the children. If you feel you could volunteer, either as a leader or an occasional helper, please contact Ben Lambert (07973 296 324) to discuss it.

Being a Beaver leader is a great experience, dealing with children between 6 and 8 years old. However if you would prefer older children, all of Great Ayton's scouting units (Beavers, Cubs and Scouts) need leaders and helpers, contact Ian McWilliam (01642 722358) to discuss the other units

Poppies for Remembrance

Poppies have become the most iconic symbol of World War One. How did that come about?

Despite the mud and desolation of Ypres Salient, every Springtime the seeds of the red poppy flourished. A Canadian doctor, Major John McRae, ran a dressing station at Essex Farm, witnessing the physically and mentally wounded brought to him for surgery. Many survived, many others did not.

For Major McRae the red poppies and their green leaves gave him hope among the carnage and inspired him to write his famous poem “In Flanders Fields”.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Thank you.*

Great Ayton Remembers

The next of our WWI Centenary Commemorations will be on Monday 9th November at 7pm when we shall remember Charlesworth Grayson. We shall meet inside Church.

Please note: Where several men fell within a week, we will remember them together. This will happen in July 2016 and will be advertised.

Leading Your Church Into Growth - LYSIG

In September Enid Sedgwick and John Dickinson joined me at a pilot Conference at Scarborough called Leading Your Church Into Growth (LYSIG). We went because we believe that our Church could and should grow, and this was a chance to learn more and to share time with folk from across the Diocese in similar situations.

We worked hard, we prayed hard and laughed harder still, for Robin Gamble, the main speaker, has a wicked sense of humour that even the Archbishop wasn't safe from. I asked Enid and John to write a few words of their first impressions of the Conference, and this is what they said. Paul

Leading Your Church into Growth by Enid Our parish was one of twenty-eight parishes taking part. The conference began with lively worship of praise and thanksgiving. A daily pattern of inspirational worship was a vital part of the programme during the conference - a morning Eucharist, Evening Worship and Night Prayer.

Planting the desire for church growth and equipping church members with a strategy to create a plan for growth in their home parishes, was the aim of the teaching sessions – which were strongly laced with humour and skilfully led by a talented LYCIG team. Time to talk and listen to people from other parishes highlighted how fortunate we are in our churches at Great Ayton and at Newton. To keep our churches healthy we need a plan to ensure that we grow in numbers, in service and spiritually.

Leading Your Church Into Growth - by John. They say that what you get out of things is equal to what you put in, or words to that effect. We certainly put a lot into the three and a half days we were in Scarborough, and from my perspective we were amply rewarded.

The days were structured around prayer, with a Eucharist before breakfast, evening worship at 6pm and night prayer at 9.30pm. Between those services the day was structured into plenary sessions, workshops and the necessary breaks for refreshment and meals, with an hour or so personal time slotted in somewhere. It is not often that you experience focusing on one topic for such a period of time. The topic of course is growth, in spirit and numbers and service.

The first realisation was that growing the Church is the elephant in the room. We all know it is a priority, that if we want to survive we must grow, but we talk around it. Growth never ‘headlines’ our discussions, as if it is simply too big to take on in one go. In fact it is not, it needs to be brought to the front and orientate our prayers and actions. Growth is a natural consequence of a healthy Church.

The second lesson is that growth does not necessarily mean major change, but we do have to adapt. We have to embrace changes in society, for example social media, as that is how the next generation of Church members live their lives. One key thought – how would our Church need to look and act so that we, as individuals, would feel comfortable asking others along. This then leads to how we welcome people into the Church and nurture them and ourselves in the knowledge of Jesus Christ.

LYCIG did not offer quick solutions, but it did show how the culture of growth as a priority, combined with a focus on prayer and witness, should lead to a movement from maintenance to expansion of our mission.

The third key point was learned from the other attendees, that we in Great Ayton are very blessed with our membership and resources. With that comes the responsibility to use these blessings effectively and that facing such an obligation is not necessarily a comfortable place to be. Archbishop Sentamu summarised it; ‘Everyone must encounter Jesus. Everyone must become a witness to Jesus Christ’.

LYCIG was a very positive experience. Growth is a priority we have to embrace, but we have the means at our disposal and, with God’s grace, we can make it a normal part of our life in Great Ayton.

The Late Laurie Cowley - by the late Bill Kirby

In November 2014 Bill Kirby sent me an article for Spire that mentioned Remembrance Sunday. Rather than use it in the Christmas Issue, I put it to one side to use this Remembrance time without knowing that Bill also would have passed away. It is printed now in tribute to two fine gentlemen that did so much for our community. Ed.

On reading the November issue of Spire, the name of Mr Laurie Cowley appeared whose familiar face was not there at this year's Remembrance Day Service, which has triggered me off writing this letter regarding Laurie.

It is almost a year since Laurie's death when the village lost one of its valuable figures who was held in high esteem and well respected. I also lost a good friend.

When living at Hollygarth I was the Treasurer of the Hollygarth Residents Association and Laurie the Secretary, and we made a great team and worked well together.

Laurie took a great interest in life and as well as taking a great interest in the Royal British Legion, he was also a serving brother of the St John's Ambulance. Laurie was a familiar face around the Cenotaph on Remembrance Sunday where he laid the first wreath representing the Royal British Legion, with other organisations following on. He will be sadly missed.

In the year 2005 Laurie and I attended a Service of Thanksgiving and Remembrance at Eden Camp marking the end of World War Two, where Laurie took part in the parade and I was a spectator. Laurie was a maritime soldier and spent most of his service at sea.

Besides being my good friend he was also my hairdresser. He used to pop along and cut my hair before any special occasion like Remembrance Sunday. It cost a tot of whisky and a chat. A friend who will never be forgotten.

Laurie died 6 December 2013
Bill died 21 May 2015. RIP

YORKSHIRE CANCER RESEARCH

Great Ayton & District Committee

On Tuesday 6th October we held the 26th Coffee morning in Kildale Village Hall. In 1988, Mrs Ridley and Mrs Dent suggested, instead of a house to house collection, it would be better to hold a coffee morning and so it has continued. This year £822.50 was raised. Sadly Mrs Dent died some years ago but Mrs Ridley still attends and continues to pay for the hire of the hall as her late husband used to do. We are also pleased that Margaret Cook continues to make the coffee. Over the 26 years £26,354 has been raised for Y.C.R. - a wonderful total. A big thank you to all who have and continue to support the event.

The "Not a Lunch" will be held on Wednesday 18th November in Christ Church Hall at 12.30pm. The speaker will be Leah Simmons. Tickets £10 are available from committee members or by telephoning 01642722044 or 01642723334. There will be a raffle, sale of Christmas cards, puddings, mincemeat, jams, fancy goods.

CONFIRMATION

The Bishop of Whitby is coming on Sunday 1st November at 5pm to take our Confirmation Service in Christ Church.

This is our chance to stand up and declare our faith in Jesus, and be confirmed in that faith by the Church. Please come and support the candidates.

Come & Join the Celebration!

On Tuesday 17th November we will celebrate 5 years of Little Fishes – come and join us at 9.30ish for this special act of worship!

Amazing Growth!

Who would have thought 5 years ago that we were starting a service that would develop into what you see below?

It hasn't 'just happened', at least 16 members of our church have put in a great deal of time and energy – to greet, welcome, prepare and lead worship, dispense coffee, tea, juice, breadsticks, tell stories, move furniture, pray and much more! Some of the Team are pictured overleaf at lunch in The Oak.

The result is that over 160 Little Fishes have swum through our doors during these 5 years, some have been visitors but many have been with us week in and week out, through sunshine and showers. A look at the Register will show an average attendance this year of 40 children and adults – so we must be doing something right!

We've had several adults move forward to having their faith confirmed by the Bishop and others who have returned to church worship after many years absence.

We say to new arrivals, 'I hope you like chaos – if you do then you're in the right place!' Our worship includes songs such as 'Great big God', the 'Building' song (wise man) & 'Walking, Jumping, Clapping for the Lord', storytelling, prayers and an amazing whole minute of silence!

We have our own Facebook Group with 61 members – its a closed group which enables parents, grandparents and helpers to keep in touch, posts, special notices and events are regularly picked up by 15 to 20 members.

Naturally children only stay with us at Fishes for about 3 years before they're off to nursery or school – they continue to join us once a month with their Dads at 'Who Let The Dads Out? Hopefully during their time with us they and their carers have discovered something of the love of God and the excitement of following Jesus.

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

During October we held our "Cards for Christmas" coffee morning and there was a good turnout, with several local charities having a stall. £104.20 was raised for our charity.

Recently, I held a Bridge Drive, which proved to be an enjoyable event, making £438 profit, which was very good.

Mike Myers is running a QUIZ for us in the CONSERVATIVE CLUB on SUNDAY, 15th NOVEMBER, at 7.30pm. Tickets, @ £6.00, can be obtained from Marina (01642 723 087), any committee member or Mike.

Looking towards the end of the month, the Christingle Service will be held on Sunday, 29th November at 5pm - collecting envelopes will be at the back of the church later on.

General Synod Elections

The governing body of the Church of England is the General Synod, which is composed of three groups - Bishops, Clergy and Lay People.

The clergy and Lay Representatives are elected by members of Deanery Synods across the Diocese every four years, to give a fair spread of representation.

We are delighted to report that Stokesley Deanery is very well represented in General Synod, with Nick Land from Great Ayton being elected to the House of Laity and Paul Hutchinson, the Rector of Stokesley, being elected to the House of clergy.

They usually meet twice a year in London, with a summer meeting in York. We wish them well.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING

Thank you to all who attended the Harvest Service at Saint Oswald's, where we enjoyed an excellent address from our new Archdeacon, Venerable Samantha Rush-ton, as well as a very good Harvest Supper afterwards.

The collection to support Farming Community Network, which supports British farmers going through hard times, raised a magnificent £582.50.

All Age Service on 15th November at 11am. At this service you are invited to bring a Love in a Box Christmas Gift to add to those going to the poor children in Romania. Forms are available at Christ Church, at the next Service at St Oswald's on 1st November and I have emailed a copy to all regulars. Its optional to do this, but many asked for leaflets when I mentioned it last service.

Confirmation 2015

Please support Lois, Gemma and Joanne - two brides and a bridesmaid - who have decided to be Confirmed in Faith at the service at Christ Church on Sunday 1st November at 5pm. If anyone else wishes to know more about Confirmation, please see the Vicar. It may be that we could even have our own Service at Saint Oswald's if we had several candidates.

Weddings next year

Only 1% of Church of England Parishes now do 26 or more weddings a year. With 25 booked in already for 2016, Saint Oswald's is about to join the 1%. If we add both Churches together, we are even higher up. My thanks to the team of vergers and musicians who support me at both Churches. With more requests for recorded music, and now the potential for slide-shows at Christ Church, the job is getting even more technical than before.

Children in Distress

On Saturday 17 October, Christ Church hosted the 26th Annual Service of Thanksgiving for the charity Children in Distress. Alisdair Barron, the Director of CID presented us with a beautiful icon of Christ Pantocrator (Christ in Majesty) as a thank you for the service and our support for the Charity over many years.

Children in Distress was founded in 1989 by John Walmsley, a Vicar from Essex who had gone to Romania with a convoy of aid when the Iron Curtain came down and the former Communist Countries of Eastern Europe were opened up. In Romania John saw great poverty, and a particular issue with HIV/ AIDS amongst many of the young people caused by infected blood products. Back then, before many of the modern anti-viral drugs, we were all terrified of AIDS and in a poor country without the resources we have here, this situation was even worse.

The charity began by opening up a Children's Hospice in the town of Cernavoda, and to begin with it was staffed with British volunteers going out for spells. Supporting churches, like St Martin's in Middlesbrough where I was Vicar at the time, would have Baby Sundays and collect disposable nappies, baby powder, soap powder, powdered milk and all sorts of other things to stock the hospice.

Over the years things have changed. The staff is now all Romanian, and supplies are sourced locally. The advances in drugs have meant that many of the children who would have died, now live and adjust to living independently. St Laurence's is no longer a hospice for the dying, but a centre for Independent living. Praise God for medical advances.

There are still children who do need hospice or hospital care, or other forms of intervention, so Children in Distress run hospices, schools and centres for autism. You can see their work on their website www.childrenindistress.org

The Charity has also organised Love in a Box each Christmas for many years, where people are invited to fill a shoebox of Christmas Gifts for a child of a certain age (or an old person), decorate it and send it over for Christmas. Christ Church has been the focal point for this collection for many years, being well supported by the other Churches and local schools. See next page for details.

Love in a Box Service

Sunday 15th November at 4pm

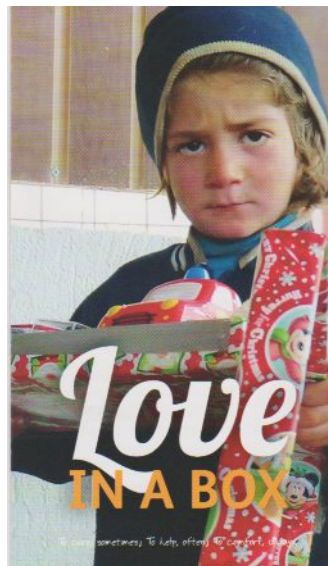

Pop along to Boyes and start collecting your Christmas Gifts for your shoebox now.

Forms available in Christ Church

Help Needed to Sort the Boxes

All the boxes collected Nationally come to Preston's of Potto, who very generously provide space and facilities. Sylvia and Peter Robinson from Great Ayton have once again agreed to co-ordinate the sorting and packing of the boxes, so that when they arrive the other end, Santa knows which ones to give to which children.

The boxes need sorting when they arrive, rather than on fixed days, so if you thing you could spare a couple of hours when needed over November, then please contact them NOW to offer your help, by calling Peter and Sylvia on 01642 722312 or email pete@peterrobinson1.plus.com

Thank You Sheila

To mark her years of service as our Gift Aid Secretary, Sheila Levett was thanked at the end of one of our services and presented with a bouquet of flowers. Sheila has proved that it is possible to give jobs up in Church without having to move out of the area! We wish her well for the future.

HAUNTING

Pitch black
Unnerving
Stiletto heels
Grate on cold hard surface
Hands sticky with sweat.
Eyes staring ahead
Transfixed
Not daring to focus
Either side or behind in case
My imagination runs away with me.
Without realising
I quicken my pace
Feeling like an escaped convict.
The moon comes out from behind

The silvery clouds
Casting eerie shadows all around.
Stark trees
Branches extended like arms
Ready to ensnare me
I panic
Abandoning my shoes
I run
An owl swoops ahead
Catching me off guard for a second
Clutching its prize
And disappears into obscurity.
Who or what will I encounter next
My nightmare had just begun

Church Weddings

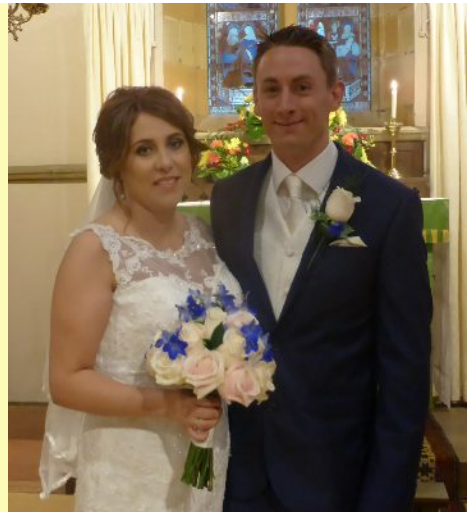

In 2011 our weddings had declined to just 6 at Christ Church and 2 at Saint Oswald's (which was a good year for them.) I started promoting weddings by going to Wedding Fairs, making contact with other suppliers involved in the wedding industry, and ensuring that the service we offer is a good one.

The proof of the pudding is that in 2015 we have had 26 weddings (17 at St. Oswald's and 9 at Christ Church.) In 2016 I now have 43 booked (25 at St. Oswald's and 18 at Christ Church) so we must be doing something right!

It is a great joy and privilege to be part of these special occasions, which have also added to the life of our Churches. We have 3 confirmees from Newton weddings, and the All Age Service attendance reached 57 in October with a congregation mostly younger than me!!

My thanks to Whinstone View, Kiss the Bride Magazine & Angrove Park for their recommendations and support. Its going to be a busy year!

Services in Magenta took place at St Oswald's Church, Newton

October had its sadnesses at the vicarage, for we lost Remus, our Chocolate Labrador, and then the following week our lovely old Beech tree was taken down, for fear of it dropping a limb on those walking through All Saints Churchyard.

The removal of the tree has changed the view from All Saints, highlighting Christ Church in the background.

A Few Chuckles

My optician told me I was colour-blind yesterday. That was a bolt from the Yellow.

I wear a stethoscope so that in medical emergencies, I can teach people a valuable lesson about making assumptions.

An elderly man in Louisiana had owned a large farm for several years. He had a large pond in the back. It was properly shaped for swimming, so he fixed it up nice with picnic tables, horseshoe courts, and some apple and peach trees. One evening the old farmer decided to go down to the pond, as he hadn't been there for a while, and look it over. He grabbed a five-gallon bucket to bring back some fruit. As he neared the pond, he heard voices shouting and laughing with glee. As he came closer, he saw it was a bunch of young women skinny-dipping in his pond.

He made the women aware of his presence and they all went to the deep end. One of the women shouted to him, 'we're not coming out until you leave!' The old man frowned, 'I didn't come down here to watch you ladies swim naked or make you get out of the pond naked.' Holding the bucket up he said, 'I'm here to feed the alligator...'

Some old men can still think fast.

Seems the Aussies are trying to cheat in the athletics again. In the 10,000 metres hurdles, an official noticed their competitor had short arms, big feet, was very hairy and answered to the name Skippy.

"I just deleted all the German names off my phone. It's Hans free" (No. 1 at the Edinburgh Fringe told by Darren Walsh)
